

42 THINGS TO DO WITH KIDS IN THE EAST BAY

brought to you by {510} Families & Oakland Museum of California

babies	toddlers	preschoolers	k-5	tweens	teens hike the trails around Mills college in Oakland	feed the animals at Little Farm in Tilden Park	see stories come to life at Children's Fairyland in Oakland	paint your own pottery at Brushstrokes in Berkeley	download a geocaching app and start a new hobby	take a photo walk of the unusual art at the Albany Bulb test your front carrier on the secret stair paths of North Berkeley	run through the tunnel at Codornices Park while yelling!	wade into the shallow water at Crown Memorial Beach in Alameda	climb the rock wall at Dracena Quarry Park in Piedmont	rent a kayak in Jack London Square	visit Blue Door Beads on Piedmont Ave to make something try the baby swings at Willard Park	get to know classic stories at Children's Fairyland	visit the fairy houses in Point Richmond	fly a kite at Cesar Chavez Park in Berkeley	order a huge sundae to share at Fentons on Piedmont Ave	cheer for the Oakland As at the Oakland Coliseum gnow on bread from Arizmendi while parents pick up lunch goodies	take a boat out on Lake Chabot in Castro Valley	explore OMCA Kids: Nature Playspace at the Oakland Museum of California	view the Oakland Zoo from the sky in the gondola	play classic miniature golf at Golfland in Castro Valley	stroll around Bay Street Mall -- separately from parents, of course stroller around Fourth Street in Berkeley and have lunch outside	throw sticks into the creek at Strawberry Creek Park	make piles of rocks at Miller/Knox Regional Shoreline Beach	pack lunch and spend the whole day at Glendale-La Loma Park	jump into a foam pit at Rockin' Jump trampoline park	bring burritos up to Indian Rock to watch the sunset spend a summer evening on a blanket watching a free performance at OMCA	borrow a huge bag of board books from the local library	climb on the whale outside the Lawrence Hall of Science	Bring your wheels to Thousand Oaks Elementary to use the black top	drive out to Concord's drive-in movie theater	Take a paddle board out at Mike's Paddle in Alameda take a Stroller Strides class with FIT4MOM in Emeryville	get messy with art supplies at Twirl in Alameda	play hide-and-seek at Dreamland Park in Berkeley	go to the top of the Campanile on the Cal campus	ride bicycles on the Bay Trail	Browse Telegraph Ave and get an ice cream sandwich at CREAM find hundreds more ideas at www.510families.com